FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WGMU RADIO SELECTS STORM A. PAGLIA AS NEW GENERAL MANAGER

Fairfax, Va.- Current WGMU Operations Manager and Mason freshman, Storm Paglia, was voted unanimously by WGMU Radio staff and advisers to lead the station as General Manager for the 2012-2013 academic year. Mr. Paglia will replace 3-year General Manager Alexander Romano, who is graduating, effective May 19th, 2012.

Paglia says that he is “humbled and honored to be given the opportunity to hold this post.” Paglia wants to continue the trend of exponential advancement and growth that the station has experienced over the past few years, along with creating more engagement within the University community.

The incoming General Manager also noted that he looks forward to “...working with other offices and organizations on campus to help promote University Life values and commitments that WGMU stands by.”

About WGMU Radio:

WGMU is the student-run free format radio station of George Mason University. It is a division of University Life and Student Media. Its mission is to foster student engagement and involvement by providing an outlet for students to express themselves, along with providing an education to tomorrow’s great broadcasters. WGMU currently has 80 hours of live and original programming on every week and streams 24/7 online, on iTunes Radio, on-campus cable television channel 16, RadioFlag.com, Tunein and any smartphone device. Currently, about 80 students are involved with the station.
